Meaningful achievements

Important documents signed by politicians or businessmen. Montblanc products have always been associated with the celebration of significant and successful moments. When they are presented as a gift for corporate occasions, the recipient receives more than an exceptionally crafted product. The true value of a Montblanc gift is its meaning.

Gifts for every occasion

Forge long-lasting client relations or reward employees. Add something unique to your business relations by marking a special occasion with an expression of your appreciation. To celebrate a milestone in client relations, to motivate your team by rewarding outstanding performance or to honour your employee with a long-lasting memory, Montblanc offers a wide range of high-quality products that appeal to men and women alike.

Gifts with personality

Hard work, outstanding commitment, great contributions. Gifting a Montblanc product is an expression of appreciation. Personalizing the gift makes it even more precious. Engrave the name of the recipient or your logo on a writing instrument. Emboss fine stationery or leather products to enhance the uniqueness of your gift. Choose from a number of gift box or wrapping options.

Bridges to new dimensions

Traditional craftsmanship meets innovative technology:
Montblanc has created products that connect worlds, such as the Montblanc Augmented Paper, which links the beauty of handwriting with the digital world, and Montblanc's first luxury smartwatch.
Control your life from the wrist as you check your schedule at a glance, stay competitive with integrated fitness tracking sensors or travel smart with voice translation, navigation and electronic boarding passes.
A Montblanc product is the ideal gift for business and leisure time.
